Upper Midwest (N. IL/S. WI)

Member Commitment Statement

The Steering Committee for the Upper Midwest CRAFT invites prospective and current members to consider this commitment statement prior to joining or renewing membership in CRAFT.

CRAFT farm members commit to:

- ❖ enable their farmer interns/employees to participate fully and faithfully in the core CRAFT program (providing interns/employees with CRAFT handbooks, schedules, reminders, and time-off for events).

The core CRAFT program includes the Intern Orientation at the Michael Fields Agricultural Institute, monthly workshops at member farms, intern exchanges and informal visits between member farms.

- ❖ offer to share expertise and experience with regional prospective farmers through the scheduled CRAFT events.
- ❖ consider serving on the CRAFT Steering Committee that guides the direction of the regional CRAFT (one or two meetings each year in the winter months).
- ❖ make an annual membership payment to the Angelic Organics Learning Center to help with the cost of administering CRAFT.
